PERKINS PASTES THEM

SOUTHPOWERS typed-up Charlie Perkins arrived on the big-time Soccer scene by gaining an Australian Soccer Federation jersey at Friday's annual meeting.

BY KEITH GILMOUR

CHARLIE PERKINS — one line for ASF job.

The ACT Federation president, once Vice-Pan Hellenic and leading Australia Indoor Soccer Federation official, became a vice-president of the ASF along with NSW president John Coonan.

Victoria's Michael Wyntoun stood aside and became an honorary vice-president.

Ian Brunsell of Queensland was eliminated in the ballot. An old soldier who mixes with political and football experience, he is used to the busy hurley of elected life.

Despite Constantine being approved the senior of the vice-presidents, it was generally considered to be Perkins' win that is pregnant with possibilities.

For example, it is no longer a long shot that an Aboriginal could be president of the ASF in the Bicentennial Year, when white settlement of Australia is commemorated.

The job will have to be filled when long serving Sir Arthur George stands down next March.

Jack Reilly, the new Victorian chairman, commented: "Having only been in office for four months, it was appropriate for me to stand for a vice-presidency at this stage."

"We are carrying out a management survey of Victorian Soccer and this is a very high priority with me."

Aggressive Approach

Perkins is known for his vigor in any problem that he tackles.

He said: "My aim is to increase the image of the sport. We will have our share of media news."

"I don't know whether I will press ahead for the ASF presidency, but sometimes you have to move ahead with your aspirations."

Perkins is the chairman of the organizing committee for the World

Indoor Championships, to take place in Australia in 1990.

He turned out for leading amateur outfit Bishop Auckland in England in his playing days.

Until last season he was still playing in Cashes.

The first stepchild to obtain a university degree, he has a big drawer position as secretary of the Commonwealth Dept of Aboriginal Affairs.

Freedom fighting is no stranger to our Charles.

ASF SURVEY ON MANAGEMENT

IN one of the most forward moves initiated by the Australian Soccer Federation, management consultants Coopers and Lybrand have been commissioned to examine the structure of the sport.

This is a course which has been advocated by AUSTRALIAN SOCCER WEEKLY as essential to the future of Soccer.

It is doubly important to have a firm such as Coopers and Lybrand on the job as they have had considerable experience in the sporting arena.

At the ASF general meeting in Friday, former Victorian chairman and ASF vice president Michael Weinstein was awarded an honorary vice presidency.

The treasurer's post went to John Dumbell, a Melbourne bank manager who has successfully handled the position previously.

Sydney City's sudden withdrawal from the West End NSL was classed as "absolutely reprehensible" by ASF executive director Brian Emery.

Transfer fees obtained from former Sydney City players will be held in trust until a determination is made over their disposal.

BERGERS IN TROUBLE OVER SCOTT FRASER

HEIDELBERG is a long way from being out the woods over Footscray's claim for points, following the former's 3-0 second round West End NSL win.

BY ROD BOWLES

Footscray protested to the NSL that the Bergers had one more visa player on their books than they were entitled to have.

What set fire to the whole affair was the arrival of former Glasgow Rangers man Scott Fraser from Green Gully for $7000.

The claim is that Heidelberg had four visa players — one more than the regulations allow.

The others are:
• ANDY DEFFLEY, the New Zealand international. He required no visa, but he is treated as a visa player under ASF rules.
• LARRY McKINNA
• PAUL LANGSHURY
Langshury was released at some stage. He had arrived in Australia on a tourist visa.

In addition there are allegations that Scott Fraser's documentation from Green Gully was incomplete. He was moved down on Sunday.

One viewpoint, that a visa player moving between clubs was not outlined in the existing club's rules, was described by a leading official as a "load of rubbish."

If that interpretation applied, then the Bergers would be opened up for unwanted imports of dubious quality.

The whole mess has landed on the doorstep of the Tribunal, with instructions to clean it up.

The Editor

WHEN this weekly newspaper was established in 1980 it set out with the objective of encompassing the theme set out in its name — AUSTRALIAN SOCCER.

Due to the tremendous amount of developmental work that ensued, it has gone on from strength to strength.

The occasional reverse has been taken in its stride, and then converted into solid progress.

Although it is a pity in a way that our main competitor this week is being laid to rest, AUSTRALIAN SOCCER WEEKLY is there to represent the best news in this magnificent sport.

As in the past, we will do so with responsibility for the magnitude of our task, and for the various segments that make up such a widespread code.

It is not unusual for one main publication to dominate the field in Association football in any particular country.

Due to its outstanding cover SOCCER EXPRESS is the voice of the sport throughout the length of New Zealand.

FRANCE FOOTBALL has pre-eminence in that country and has world wide renown. Even in the huge UK football market there has been an exceptionally strong tendency for localised, or at the very least, regional publications.

Whilst the aim of ASW remains to satisfy our present patrons, developing our relevance and making them the present focus we are faced with new challenges, particularly in the big Victorian Soccer market.

This inevitably will lead to some modifications to our content, even allowing that this year we had already begun providing two pages of Victorian news.

Our Victorian material will immediately become more tight, incisive and relevant. In each of our lives change constantly occurs, and the way we manage it can lead to success. It is no different with this publication.

The Victorian market required lower division results and tables, which are difficult to provide in NSW, and we are working hard to meet the vital needs of our consumers.

AUSTRALIAN SOCCER WEEKLY is a member newspaper in a group which is in the middle range of Australian publishing houses.

We have an outstanding technological foundation, but the challenges currently being faced call for certain modifications and updating of our systems.

How quickly these can be achieved is the current question. Our computer department is working at maximum speed to identify and implement the solutions.

ASW has never been afraid to attack the sacred cows of the game. It must congratulate the sport on its successes, good it to greater things, and occasionally criticise for its mistakes.

We will not renege from applying our principles to questions involved in any area of the game in the future.

At the same time we recognise the paramount position of the player, be it a case of the nation teams, national or state leagues and so on through the ranks.

As we thank our current readership and prepare to meet the needs of our new readers we look forward to catering as fully as humanly possible for your interest in the great Australian-wide, world-wide sports of ours.

AUSTRALIAN SOCCER WEEKLY is there to satisfy your needs for hard news and general features on the broad spectrum of the game.

Soccer is a sport of diversity. It is a whole range of human backgrounds — of city and country alike. ASW itself is the heart of Australian Soccer.

PRESIDENT SAVES JOHN FREW IN 'NO MACEDONIANS' BLOW UP

WOLLONGONG Macedonia president Lube Stefanovski last week averted a dramatic plan by a faction within the club to sack coach John Frew.

After rumours had leaked that the Macedonia committee met on Wednesday night and it was decided that Frew would stay on.

Before the meeting, Stefanovski said he wanted Frew to stay and if the committee called for his sacking he would walk out alone.

"I know there have been rumours and there is a conflict within our club about the coaching situation," Stefanovski said.

"I am certain about the way things are going with Frew and his back-up, Derek Henderson and Dale Jones."

Before the meeting the players had vowed to support Frew if he was sacked.

One player said it was no secret that faction within the committee wanted to sack the coach to have more Macedonian players in it.

BY PHIL MURPHY

"We felt this was wrong and not to talk the matter over," the player said.

"No committee should be able to put pressure on a coach when it comes to winning a team."

The committee were reported to be upset that there were only three Macedonian players in first grade for the early part of the season.

Goalkeeper Peter Todorovski, and midfielders Ljupko Todorovski and Alex Krivoski were the three players.

Macedonia picked up only two points from their first four games with draws against Wollongong City and Sutherland.

There is also pressure on the Macedonia committee this season as new district club Pennant is attracting Macedonian supporters to their matches.

A number of ex-Macedonia players are with Pennant and they are expected to win the first season second division.

The supporters met again on Tuesday night over the coach but the 4-1 win over Inter Marconi has a happy ring to it.

THOMSON BOWS OUT

EDDIE THOMSON, coach of disbanded Sydney City, has decided to sit out for the entire season.

Said Eddie: "I have lost a supporter from two clubs, but I don't wish stepping in without preparing for the season and engaging my support staff."

"Maybe I will do the job as assistant national coach and enjoy some of the time with my family that I have so often missed since the last seven years."

BY KATH ORMOND

Thomson is due to be paid by his employer, the Hakoah Club Ltd, until the end of 1988 under his contract.

It will take some weeks to tidy up player loans and especially at every-thing new has to be done to the satisfaction of the ASF and NSL.

Thomson up for grabs in-clude New Zealand international goalkeeper Clint Goring.

Spoke up Clint: "This is the second club that has collapsed around me — first Newcastle KB and now Sydney City."

A lot of $4000 for one of the best keepers in the country — he should be snapped up.

In fact two Sydney clubs could do with him immediately, and Melbourne Croatia has made enquiries.

A whole list of quality players are gradually being lined. The likes of Brian Hughes, Marky Barnes, Ian Southen, Abbas Saad, Grant Lee, Robert Hooker and Dan Rodriguez should soon find homes, not to mention top defender Alex Robertson.

AROK PICKS SOUTHERN SOCCEROO SQUAD

FRANK AROK has named a Victorian-South Australian 14 man squad that must be considered high on talent.

Alan Davidson, who is fighting to regain fitness following an absence from the game, has won inclusion.

There are no surprises, with Alan Scott having played well enough to be a highly worthy inclusion following his strong bid to join Melbourne

Croatia from demoted Adelaide Hellas.

The players are: Alan Davidson, Robbie Dunn, Alan Scott (Melbourne Croatia), Jeff Oliver, Theo Selenidis (Helsberg), Gary McDowell, Paul Wade, Angie Postecoglou (South Melbourne), Andrew Zinni (Brunswick), Charlie Villani, Sergio Mella (Adelaide City), Oskar Crino, Ernie Topal (Footscray), Phillip

SPURS-COVENTRY FOR CUP FINAL

It's a Tottenham Hotspur-Coventry City FA Cup final at Wembley on Saturday May 16 and Coventry are the underdogs.

Saturday's 4-1 Tottenham win over troubled Welford has firmly entrenched them as favourites — if they weren't already.

Leeds took Coventry to extra time before the latter won 2-2.

For Tottenham it will be a case of whether they are eight time lucky. All seven earlier Cup final appearances have brought a favourable result.

The darling of the crowds that Wembley is certain to be the Argentine veteran, Osvaldo Ardiles.

Having played in the semi-final, he should win selection again.

If the often unmatchable Glenn Hoddle is on his game the Spurs will have yet another big advantage.

Although Norwich is out of league contention, they humbled the mighty Liverpool, who slipped three points behind rampaging Everton.

The latter has a game in hand and seem destined to scoop the title.

Up in Scotland, St Mirren and Dundee United have booked their passage to Hampden Park for the Scottish Cup final also on May 16.

Frank McGervey scored both St Mirren goals in the 2-1 win over Hearts, whilst Dundee United defeated neighbours Dundee 3-2.

HEAT IS ON!

ROBBIE WHEATLEY has no doubts that Marconi will be one of the trumps this season, simply because of the immense amount of depth the club boasts.

The international defender knows the competition for a place is hot. "Actually I hope they have stopped their purchasing for this year because sports in the first grade are hard enough to grab," he said with a laugh.

"This is a completely different side from 1986, the skill factor is up much higher, thanks largely to our coach Roberto Vico obviously."

"We have most of the attributes, if not all, needed to be a real force in the NSL. The quantity, quality and discipline is all there — the basis of a winning squad. Competition for places is great, it keeps everyone on their toes and performing at their peak."

Wheatley, like most of the Marconi contingent, has been concerned at the club's disappointing start to the NSL, but is quick to point out that most clubs go through a slump.

"Everyone has a poor period and that is ours and it'll be over very shortly. We weren't as concerned as we should have been early on and a prime example was when Brunswick smacked us in the first round."

Many observers have wondered whether Wheatley is better off playing at left-back or at sweeper, but the classy 24-year-old has no doubts.

"I prefer left-back. I certainly don't mind playing in the sweeper's position but at times it gets a bit much there. At fullback, if you do your job early on in marking the striker, there is plenty of chance to get forward, which I like."

"As against that, playing in the center of defence gets hectic if the opposition is attacking at will. Everyone is coming straight at you," he explained.

A prime example of Wheatley doing the "job" was in Marconi's 2-0 win over George at Marconi Stadium recently when he marked Peter Petkovski out of the game. So much so that Petkovski had to be replaced, and got forward in the second half to lend a hand in attack.

However Robbie realises that it is these types of preliminaries he must keep up if he is to hold a permanent spot in the Marconi side and further to that play for Australia on a regular basis.

He adds: "I'm glad we've got the depth on two occasions. It keeps up the team effort and on my own side of things it forces me to play well when I see the likes of Joe Rizzotto and Lex Stacey looking for a spot."

FRANK COLETTA

TIME IS ON MARCONI'S SIDE

STAR Marconi striker FRANK FARINA is adamant that the Fairfield side is going places if only they are allowed some time to blend all their undoubted talent together.

Farina poses frankly: "You know, most people are the antagonists of the club and immediately claim it is a disaster that will sweep everything before it."

"That is not the case. Sure it is a talented bunch of players but just like any new squad waiting off together, time is needed to get to know one another's style and get a combination going."

When queried on the fact that the Bromley Park club had gone through the majority of the pre-season like a house on fire and of late the team had defaulted to a sluggish style, Farina had the reply:

"It just happened that the team clicked early on, yet it must be remembered the conditions and circumstances of these early matches. They were in essence just trials and preliminaries in the season. Other clubs weren't as prepared and we took them on well," he stated.

BY FRANK COLETTA

The confidence in Marconi lifting itself from their early season slump was not in doubt though, stating: "We'll recover from this and go on to big things."

On his own form he had to disagree. "I'm satisfied with the team I've had and I'm quite confident the goals will begin to flow for me. I was pretty happy when the club signed Tommy McCulloch."

"His arrival can only help my game. Over the season we have created a great understanding and it's marvellous to have him behind me in midfield," he said.

WHIZZ KID READY TO MAKE QUEENSLAND GARDEN GROW

THE Queensland Soccer Federation has employed a 26-year-old "Business Whizz-Kid" as its new fulltime marketing and promotions man.

Mark Gardener, who runs a successful television advertisement and media promotions company along with a thriving formal wear agency, began at Perry Park last week. Gardener was chosen after interviews following more than 40 applications for the position.

Gardener, a former Navy demolition diver, was introduced to the QSF club last week and admitted he had not kicked a soccer ball since his schooldays. But he is ready to use that to his advantage.

"I can offer fresh ideas and a new approach. It's just a matter of time within the code realising that if they want to be a major force, they have to do things themselves," Gardener said.

Gardener, who has a management and marketing diploma, has big plans for Queensland Soccer, which includes the harnessing of the code's many juniors, better utilisation and marketing of the multi-million dollar Perry Park complex and the development of a huge media awareness campaign that will thrust Soccer personalities into the public eye.

"Soccer in Queensland has the potential to be what ever it wants. But at the moment it looks as if a Roly Polly without a doll," Gardener said.

"It is an excellent vehicle for promotion and marketing that just needs someone to lead it in the right direction. The marketing and promotion of Soccer is very much like the game itself. Those who make the fast moves and combine quick thinking with sound pressure and a little bit of the unexpected are the ones who will win."

Gardener, who quit the Navy because he found the military restrictive, says he is aware that a huge cloud of discontent, disinterest and lethargy had developed on Soccer and would be hard to kick away. But enthusiasm and optimism seem to bubble from a perpetual calm within his body.

"I am expecting there will be barriers and what of the things I suggest may first not be accepted. But that is a matter of answering the doubters' questions and highlighting to them what they will gain. Once the heart and soul of the code is motivated, and that's the players and the clubs, then there is only one way to go."

"I can offer the aggressive approach to marketing that Soccer needs and I am sure once I am over the hump the negative attitudes which seem to haunt the code, then someone will realise we are all on a winner."

CROATIA CONTINUE IN GREAT FORM

MELBOURNE CROATIA followed up its surprise league win over Brunswick Juventus by putting four goals past Juve without reply in their Beach Fashions Cup game under lights at Olympic Park last Wednesday night.

BY GREG BLAKE

Under-estimated Brunswick, leading a team showing few changes from the previous Sunday, had no answer to the team-morale Croatia.

Captain specialist Croatia simply overwhelmed Juventus after going ahead through a Jimmie Lee Campbell goal.

Jump Brian Reid to a delightful cross from the right, Andy Thomson connected with a shot which cracked the crossbar and Campbell followed up to put the ball away.

Five minutes after half time an attempted clearance from a Juventus defender deflected into the path of goalkeeper Paul Lewis, who angled his shot just inside the Juventus keeper John Kempson.

The brilliant Tony Lemerenda set up Thomson to make it 3-0 15 minutes from half time when he intercepted an attempted back-pass and put the ball away with a delightfully delivered through ball.

In the dying minutes Melbourne Croatia rounded off a memorable night for its supporters when an Alan Scott corner was headed in by Robbie Slater and big Dave Mulholland stepped in to head home past Kempson for a convincing 4-0 win.

Brunswick Juventus officials, worried by excessive delays at the beach of Melbourne Croatia, expressed concern over the mounting injury and suspension toll in the camp.

In the second of two Wednesday night's double header games Croatia continued to show its dramatic improvement in form by coming third behind to down Tasmania 2-1.

Prescott, still undefeated in the new campaign, went behind eight minutes before half time but showed a tremendous form reversal when half time to put Tasmania out of the Beach Fashions Cup for 1987 with six days to go.

The opening Faraway goal came after a Warren Spink shot was blocked off the line by Prescott keeper Phil

Trueman and Chris Lamb pressed to crack home the rebound.

Prescott mounted well from the set-back and returned after interval with a full head of steam.

Prescott's deserved equaliser came 20 minutes into the second half when Ian Dobson marked his return from suspension by heading home a Con O'Sullivan free kick.

Despite their overall dominance, Prescott could not get a normal time winner and had to wait until the minutes were down to seconds for a berth in the next cup round.

The crucial goal came from back-to-front Steve Smith who spun on to a through ball and fired off a challenge from Gary Van Egmond before rebounding when keeper Zoran Nikolic and slamming the ball into the net.

The win, said Prescott coach Neil Murray, was a tribute to the hard work put in by his team despite problems over summer.

NORWAY'S THREE POINTERS POINT TO THE WAY AHEAD

THE Australian Soccer Weekly recently reported that Norway has introduced a new system which does away with drawn matches in its competition in an effort to lift declining attendances.

Their idea is to simply decide a match on a penalty shoot-out in the event of a draw, thus ensuring that a result is obtained.

This story grabbed my attention as it is precisely what I proposed in an article that appeared in ASW on the 10th June last year.

My suggestion was to award 3 points for a win in the normal 90 minutes, 2 points for winning on penalties, 1 point if a match is drawn but lost in the penalty shoot-out and no points at all for the losers in normal time.

Sure, this will be a radical change for the game, but with falling attendances a growing problem in most parts of the world maybe the time has come for some radical thinking to be introduced.

The argument that I used for this proposal nearly twelve months ago was simple today.

If a World Cup semi-final can be decided on penalties, why not a run of the mill competition match?

There can be little argument that the increased level of tactical efficiency has robbed the game of a certain amount of excitement.

This is a fact that has got to be faced, so what's wrong with introducing a new ingredient that may add drama and bring every match to a definite conclusion.

Football has always been reluctant to part with tradition but in the end it invariably must.

It will therefore be quite ironic if a Soccer minnow like Norway could show the giants the way towards the 21st century.

I for one will follow this Norwegian experiment with a great deal of interest.

SYDNEY OLYMPIC MEETS ST GEORGE IN BATTLE OF THE TAILENDERS

SYDNEY OLYMPIC and ST GEORGE, two teams yet to knock up any League points, face each other on Monday at the St George Stadium in what could be called "The Day of Reckoning".

Plenty of action is guaranteed when John Kobalina, Olympic's chief striker, lines up against his former teammate from Sydney City, Steve O'Connor, now the St George centre-back.

The match has been switched to Easter Monday by the home side to allow the trucking community club to celebrate Greek Easter Day, a big occasion in that religion.

David Ratcliffe, a former St George striker and now the nearest bona fide player at Sydney Olympic, will face his former mentor, Frank Asch, coach of St George, in a battle of tactics.

The Saints, after successive losses against APIA, Marconi and Melbourne Croatia are now desperate for a victory to avoid the big drop at the end of the season.

But the star-studded Sydney Olympic are in an even worse position, also with three successive losses, having made big signings during the off-season as they had hoped to make a solid ascent for the championship.

This was going to be Sydney Olympic's big year.

But also, Steve Clark has been appointed.

After the first week,

Sydney Olympic sacked their coach, Milan Lukic, and lost the services of key striker Marshall Super for at least three months. Their tough-tackling midfielder, Gary Phillips, will miss at least the next four matches through injury.

Adding to Olympic's list of woes, skipper Peter Raskopoulos will also be out for this match due to back problems.

Ratcliffe, Olympic's caretaker coach, has lightened his side's defence accordingly, following the spending handed out to them by Sydney Croatia a fortnight ago.

But it was not enough to escape yet another loss last Sunday to Melbourne, this time at the hands of Ivanovic Jovanovic in Melbourne.

The former World Cup centre-back, said "Give us another two or three weeks to work on our defence department and we will be back on the track."

Meanwhile, Frank Asch, despite his tough stance at former Sydney City boss, Steve O'Connor and Kevin Hagan, topped another busy last Friday night when Melbourne Croatia ripped the young, inexperienced St George apart with dramatic displays by their strikers, Paul Lewis and Ian Wallace.

NSW DIV 2 BLACKTOWN WINS

BLACKTOWN started slowly and took 30 minutes to hit the lead.

Steve Nemeslanci scored off David Martin's assist to continue their good form from last week.

In the second half a Blacktown third player was sent off but the side responded by scoring a great combination goal.

Ray Edridge supplied a perfect through pass to Micky Delf who in turn sent David Martinsson away on the wing.

Micky Delf followed the play and tucked Martinsson's accurate cross into the net for the final and deserved scoreline.

DEE WHY COACH MIKE SPEED

SECOND DIVISION CLUB IN STRIFE

GLADESVILLE Hornsby is struggling in the NSW State League Second Division, after running second in first grade and winning the club championships in 1986.

It comes out that no less than six of the club's signed have been or still are overseas, giving new coach Glenn Fentrate a game headache.

The promoted players have struggled mightily, but some of the players will be off as players return over the next few weeks.

Out of the return home back, Paddy Sullivan, Keith Rodwell, Ian Dunn, Glenn Montford, Les Mander and John Rutherford as well as captain and midfielder Chris Williams.

Paul Colman has had a knee reconstruction and will's return will not be long.

TASMANIAN TALK

TAROONA won the Rothmans League section final of Southern Tasmania's Cascade Summer Cup competition when it beat Metro-Claremont 2-1 in extra-time of the replay at Glenorchy's KGV stadium.

It was a comfortable win for Taroom as it played the last 10 minutes of the match with only ten men after central defender John Popley was sent off in the 75th minute for allegedly striking Metro's Michael Dwyer.

Ex-Metro coach David Smith had a memorable career for Taroom.

He scored the equaliser in the 10th minute with a glancing header from Peter Wallace's corner to take the replay into extra-time. He then took Steve Holinger's place in goal for the final five minutes of the match. Holinger had to rush off to a wedding — and pulled off a brilliant diving save from Steve Puchford's shot which threatened to take the game to penalties.

Taroom's goalkeeper Steve Holinger was man-of-the-match as he proved almost unbreakable and saved near certain goals by Mark Phillips, Puchford and Michael McInnes, the latter on several occasions.

It took a penalty by McInnes in the 20th minute to beat Holinger and give Metro the lead and the only other time he looked to be beaten came ten minutes earlier when Kevin Clapp's left footed shot was blocked by Kevin Wright cleared off the line.

Brent Puchford, Metro's goalkeeper, saved bravely on two occasions.

In the 75th minute he miraculously saved Craig Ross's header over the bar to preserve Metro's lead, while in the second period of extra-time he stopped Peter McInnes, who had broken through the defence and had only the goalkeeper to beat.

The match was full of incident, with Taroom's Holinger and Smith, and Metro's Oliver and Puchford cautioned, while Popley of Taroom was dismissed.

No Penalties

There were several spateful incidents involving Metro's Puchford and Agius and Taroom's Sherman, and one between Metro's Ashwood and Taroom's Wallace, but amazingly enough, none of these players was even cautioned.

The winning goal came three minutes into extra-time when Taroom's mid-fielder Eddie Stewart scored from the corner of the penalty area and sent in a delightful chip into the head of Puchford.

The win was sweet revenge for Taroom coach Owen Richards and manager John Ross.

Not only had their side lost last year's final to University, but it had to survive extra-time and penalties in the semi-final against South Hobart and then undergo a marathon final which lasted 220 minutes and two games.

Metro had only itself to blame for the defeat as it should really have wrapped up the match in the first half.

Phillips, Clapp and McInnes all had great first-half chances, while Holinger, Clapp and Dwyer will have sleepless nights after missing second-half efforts.

Taroom had its chances in second time, too.

Craig Ross was constantly finding David Smith at the far post with his corner but Smith's headers were either too weak or inaccurate.

Peter Sherman, who had a tremendous battle with Ross Agius throughout the match, had an off-day and must have been relieved when his side won.

He had two chances in quick succession in the 20th minute, the first blocked by Oliver and the second parried by Puchford, and he might have scored twice in extra-time, once when he converted Holinger's long clearance before turning and firing past a post, and again when he only had the goalkeeper to beat.

Sherman still contributed to the game, however, as it was his cross which should have enabled Ross to score, and he did with the corner which Smith headed home for the goalkeepers.

"SOCCER & TRAIN SOCCER BALLS
THE PERFECT MATCH"

CHIT CHAT - Behind the scene at your club

LAST WEEK Sydney Olympic's acting coach David Ratcliffe couldn't believe his luck. Peter Karamandis had been injured at the field with a damaged knee at Wednesday night's training. The club feared the worst, but Karamandis recovered in time to train vigorously just 48 hours later.

BLACKTOWN CITY secretary Peter Thom isn't exactly happy. He claims that the NSL paid a deal of attention to a West Adelaide approach to replace Sydney City in the NSL, but they ignored the expressed interest of the Demons in the same objective.

THIS year Canberra City is playing under the name "Canberra Griffins", and under new management. The significance of "Griffins" is to appeal to the entire Canberra population in a bid to build up for bigger things. The "Griffins" is a reference to one of the national capital's main emblems - Lake Burleigh Griffin.

IF Adelaide Hellas does not make the play-offs for the 1988 West End National League barrier it could blame former Soccer Marty Crook.

The big keeper, now back with his old State league club, kept Hellas to a 2-2 win the other week when it could easily have been 5-2.

And while Hellas were being thwarted, their rival, Salisbury, also with three wins from three games, emerged with a 7-0 scoreline from three games while Hellas had to be content with 7-2.

The pair meet on May 9 in a game which could enhance or hinder Hellas' hopes of getting back in the league.

ANOTHER APFA player who struck trouble is powerful full-back VIC BOZANEC. He injured his back in a training session just prior to the Adelaide City game, but he hopes to be back in the squad again very shortly.

EDDY THOMPSON these days seems to answer his telephone as a barrage of calls have bombarded his home working his coaching services.

He really has no need for a coaching job as his employer, the Hakoah Club, has stated that it is prepared to pay him every week for the duration of his current contract.

What's that duration? Till the end of 1990.

STRUCKER Kevin Hagan was back in New Zealand when the winding up of Sydney City hit the headlines. Fancy just crossing the Tasman to join an Australian West End League club, and then finding it didn't even exist!

WOLLONGONG City fans, take a bow...

After the Wolves-Blacktown game, played under lights at Wollongong Showground, referee Roger Donnan was booed from the field.

Donnan had dished out nine yellow cards, sent Wolves' midfielder Rade Stefanovski off and disallowed what seemed to be a penalty kick to the home team.

Blacktown won the game 3-1 but both coaches were critical of the referee.

As Donnan and his lineamen were going in to their dressing room one of them was heard to say: "Thank goodness it wasn't at Croatia's ground."

Another said: "Oh, you never have trouble here; they are a good crowd."

Maybe the Wolves' fans need to show a bit more aggression to get a better deal.

ADELAIDE City is luckier than most National League clubs when it comes to the three-week break while the Soccerbros are in Korea.

They have a team in the SA State League second division where they can use any of their National League players. This ensures a full-blooded workout.

However, coach Zoran Matić may use the break to rest some of his players who are finding it a strain in a shoe-string squad trying to retain the league title.

But he is anxious to see the team get into the State League First Division to attract more youngsters to the club.

Fortunately he has made two more signings since our last issue - former State League Andy Toland, a midfielder, has signed after a stint in Perth, and former Footscray midfielder Osen Milosevic has also been taken on.

ONE WHY Bears State League second division club will this year be without their great club man and longest serving player of over 10 years.

His name is Steve Haggart, who has "retired" to play in amateur ranks.

Steve, brother of former star Russell Haggart, is well known in the lower divisions, having given great service to both Dee Why and now defunct Vagoona.

DAVID RATCLIFFE... acting coach.

These Are Shaky Saints!

BY FRANK COLETTA

"IN a team as shaky as this you need a bit of luck and the bounce of the ball to go your way on the odd occasion, as yet this hasn't happened and we've been on the wrong end all too often." These are the words of a concerned St. George coach FRANK AROK.

Arok was referring to the disappointing start to the NSL season by his charges.

It is something when players are given instructions to march out and they are not turned out.

"For a majority of a game we are able to hold the opposition but then we fall in our defensive duties and we are a losing team."

"This has been our downfall all season."

It could be considered that St. George is going through a period of a transition period after having lost close to a full team during the off-season.

But it's high time people stopped making excuses and referring to the departed stars of David Randall, Terry Greedy and Co.

Saints have talent in their midst, plenty of youth and exuberance and this has to be harnessed together by Arok if this grand old club is to avoid trouble such as relegation come the end of the season.

As Arok says: "We can only continue to fight."

And fight they must.

Two of the hapless Saints, Moritz and Riccio.

TARRAWANNA'S
Bobby Toth must have created some kind of record when he played in the Premier League match against South Coast Croatia at McLennan Park.

With a few minutes to go in the game, Toth was fouled in the penalty area and he took the shot which went into the top corner of the goal.

It was a brilliant goal and it was a pity that Toth was not able to score again in the game.

Match of the Day

It will almost certainly be the ISA Sunday match of the round this weekend and Port Kembla and Warilla Wanderers should turn it on at Wychemill Park. Port Kembla have a very good chance of winning with the Spanish backed Warilla Wanderers who have a number of players who are returning from injury.

It will be an interesting game to watch and it should be a good one for the fans.

GREENACRE TORNADOES ARE STAR MATERIAL

THE Indoor Soccer League kicked off on Monday April 6 at Bankstown City YMCA. Revesby and Greenacre usually dominate this competition but from the first night's play it would seem that there is no clear cut winner. The competition is played every Monday night beginning at 7pm.

GAME ONE

THE Greenacre Tornadoes looked to be the team to beat before this competition started and that prediction remains valid.

With a number of players who are returning from injury, Greenacre were a bit out of sync in their first game. However, they managed to score a goal in the first half and they were leading at the end of the game.

REASONABLE DISCIPLINE PAYS OFF ACCORDING TO AUGUSTO

UGLY SIDE OF RUGBY!

EXCLUSIVE PICTURES

NO WONDER SOCCER REMAINS THE BEST

LAST week we pointed to what parents and so many schoolteachers understand so well.

That is, that Soccer is the genuine football code that developed mind and youth football to meet the needs of Australian youngsters.

The Soccer code has had its junior Soccer in place for so many years the rules are tried and trusted.

The code is played with so much ease it is simply made to be enjoyed. As standards improve under the weight of widespread coaching and special courses, so does the enjoyment of Soccer increase.

Small pits, less reduced goals, run runs for wide fellows — it is all a component of the world's greatest and most played game.

The only extent to which Soccer falls behind is in the states where Australian rules is not properly challenged by district Soccer.

Soccer people there have not expanded enough into the suburban clubs and district associations.

It is up to the National Junior Committee to find the way to put the expansion elsewhere before it is too late.

Perhaps NSW, Queensland and ACT officials could be invited in to those states — or better enthusiastic junior people brought in — centres such as Sydney, Newcastle, Brisbane and Brisbane to study the organisation.

But the huge numbers of suburbs involved in the Commonwealth Bank Cup, the OAK Turner Cup and other series speak for themselves.

The number of schools involved is unmatched by longer established codes.

Last week the Sydney Daily Mirror produced some pertinent comments on rugby union by their unnamed rugby writer on which Soccer is safe for junior predominance in part rests.

Soccer is the game where the ball is dealt with — where the charge and the tackle are well controlled under laws of the Game that have been tested throughout the world.

And so countless thousands of Australian youngsters are enjoying the world game in Australia.

As Australia's Soccer standards rise, the way is paved to compete in the sport from the local districts through to the Australian national team at senior and World Cup, Olympic Games, World Youth Championships and the under fives.

It is a mighty sport, which is continuing to grow throughout Australia.

HUGE COMMONWEALTH BANK SCHOOLS SOCCER SERIES

OVER the past few years the Commonwealth Bank Soccer Cup and Shield have become two of the most keenly contested and prestigious events on the Combined High Schools Sports Calendar.

It is the biggest competition of its type in the Southern Hemisphere.

This success has been brought about by the enthusiasm and dedication of teachers, coaches and students within the schools and the generous support given to school soccer by the Commonwealth Bank.

This year there will be a total of 12 Commonwealth Bank scholarships to the Johnnie Warren Challenge Cup.

The scholarships are to be awarded on April 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, May 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, VERSATILE ROCKHAMPTON JUNIORS

FROM Rockhampton to the Australian Under 16 squad is a big jump, but two local lads are on their way.

State Under 16 years Soccer representatives Guy Rigby and Glen Sheppard, of the Trenchville club, are two of only three Queensland players in the Australian training squad which is preparing for the Under 16 World Cup finals in Canada during June and July.

The 16-year-olds, who can play any position from fullback to forward, will join the 34-member national squad in Sydney for a camp which begins on Thursday.

Rigby, who prefers defence or midfield, was a star player for the Australian World Cup qualifying squad team in China during September. He spent a month training with English first division club Southampton in January.

Sheppard, a speedy Central Queensland League winger, was added to the national squad this week on the nomination of Queensland director of coaching Bruce Stewart.

METROPOLITAN REPRESENTATIVES

THE NSW Metropolitan Championships have been set down to commence on May 17 this year.

Competition secretary Bill Cullinan said that the previous date of May 3 had been abandoned as the rearrangement fitted better with school holiday dates.

NEWCASTLE ETCETERA

MAY I say how much I am enjoying ASA this year. I think it's about 100 years since I missed an issue of your football magazine. Thanks to Peter and our football league now has a lot of strength and I would love to read a few West Enders at the end of the year.

How nice it was to see Sydney City and Adelaide City both at the finals in the recent Targa Tasmania Cup series.

While in Sydney City may I say I am totally delighted at the people from the Hawke Cup for even thinking about us.

landing a great football club.

I don't know how they can sleep at night after destroying City.

I must say Alan Ford makes me sick. Every year he makes his pie in the sky predictions and writes off Newcastle United. He thinks United is finishing tenth in the First League in 1987.

United are on the way up, and up is the NFL in 1988 where they belong, although I'll save the NFL management will find some way to help us out.

The good luck to all NFL clubs this year especially Adelaide City who must really enjoy the NFL, happily because they're not from Melbourne or Sydney.

Good on you Gurnea-Land for beating Tri, who did not behave properly in Brisbane.

Finally may 1987 be a prosperous and winning year for the beloved Soccer. Good luck in Korea and for the rest of the year, you are the greatest.

Dave McGraw,

12 Laprena Close, Charlestown 2230
P.S. Newcastle United AFC forever.
P.P.S. Any fan who would like to swap match programmes and souvenirs write home.

N. TERRITORY FOREVER

I am writing you a few words to ask you why there are not any Soccer matches played in the Northern Territory Soccer League in 1986.

Northern Territory is still in Australia and they do play Soccer over there.

Your paper covers all sports including Tasmania on the Soccer scene.

Why not the Northern Territory?
P.S. (Write us the good work ASA)

T. Beldacchino, St Marys, 2760
(We would be glad if the N.T. Federation publicity officer would provide scores—Ed)

WORLD COMPETITION RECORDS

I AM writing to you in desperation to ask if you or one of your writers can help me.

I am trying to compile a World Soccer Record Book in which I am putting all the results of the Olympic Soccer Tournaments, FIFA World Cup and the Youth World Cup results.

I am puzzled. I cannot get results of the following 1980 World Youth Cup, 1984 Olympic Soccer Tournament, 1985 World Youth Cup.

I have been told to write to the FIFA organisation in Switzerland but I am a pensioner and cannot afford the money to send them the money they ask for, so I am hoping you will help me.

If you could do this I would be very grateful.

Robert W. Forbes, East Maitland 2323

P.S. I like your Australian Soccer Weekly magazine.

No doubt the Australian Soccer Federation, 26 Clarence St, Sydney would be ready to assist you.—Ed

CHARLTON'S $200,000 recruit PAUL MILLER is no rookie when it comes to a battle.

The former Spurs central defender admits: "I've thrived upon this type of situation throughout my career."

"I'm the type who cannot be less than 100 per cent committed. I believe in giving it everything and I'll be going flat out for my new club just as I did in every game I played for Tottenham."

WEST German NIEMEN LEVERKUSEN are ready to offer their striker HERBERT WAAS a new contract worth a cool $2m over the next three years.

Wonder whether it's got anything to do with a recent phone call from Bayern Munich's ULL HOENESS?

NORTHERN IRELAND took a strong step prior to their European Championship encounter with England a few nights ago.

The Irish FA decided that an England team should be named and that the match would be an all-Ireland affair with the crowd limited to 24,000.

It didn't do the Irish men much good, though, as they went down 2-0.

AUSTRALIA'S EDDIE KRECHVINO continues to show his Belgian championship class with ANDER-LECHT.

With FC Maastricht and Beerschot out on their last Krechvino has added his club with some expert goalkeeping and recently grabbed two in a game.

THE united efforts of African nations to try and get England, Scotland, Northern Ireland and Wales to participate into one team has been rebuffed by FIFA.

Sepp Blatter, secretary general of FIFA, said: "The move was headed by Gaites, but it has been categorically rejected. That is the end of the matter."

The motion was to restore the British representative voting pattern to what it had been through it would have successfully meant Britain being allowed only one team.

FIFA president Josep Havelberg was the first to reject the idea.

WHILE GARY LINEKER's prodigious keeps Barcelona in a strong position at the top of the Spanish League, rumors have it that second-placed Real Madrid are quickly losing patience with their Dutch coach THO RIENSHAEKER.

WATFORD'S JOHN BARNES says he won't be making his mind up about joining Liverpool until the end of the season.

Basically the lad feels he can make more money abroad and you can't blame him for trying.

WALES have lodged an official complaint with the Football Association over Coventry's refusal to release mid-fielder DAVID PHILLIPS for last month's friendly international with the USSR. Coventry did not want him to risk injury before their FA Cup Fifth Round clash with Stoke City.

GARY LINEKER

LEEDS UNITED full-back NEIL ASPIN was delighted that the Elland Road club reached the FA Cup semi-finals.

But his heartfelt thanks was far from shared at the north of dates from Saturday to Sunday the 22nd of April because that's the day they were due to be drawn.

It was no harm then a double celebration because Neil also turned 22 on that day.

MANCHESTER UNITED and TOTTENHAM HOTSPUR are keenly watching the situation at ARSENAL after hints that Swedish keeper IMA HEDERSTROM may be allowed to leave Arsenal at the end of the season.

GLASGOW CELTIC have also made inquiries about central defender ALEX MCELROY.

WHEN Tottenham finished Leicester City 3-0 in a recent League encounter an unlikely reunion was produced for RICHARD DOUGH and MICK D'AVRAY.

D'AVRAY, the Ipswich striker on loan with City, explained: "Richard and I grew up together in South Africa. We're very good friends."

"We came to England together for trials. I was taken on by Ipswich, but Richard was turned down by Charlton. Last month's game was the first time we've faced each other."

SUPPORTERS of FC COCOURNE are planning a demonstration to stop their third World Cup player being sold this season.

First cab off the rank was winger PIERRE HETREANSKI to Racing Club of Paris. Recently Harald Schumacher was shown the door after his controversial autobiography.

New hot-shot striker KLAUS ALLOFS looks set to sign for Real Madrid after failing to agree to terms with the German club.

Real want Allofs as a replacement as they are resigned to losing Mexican Hugo Sanchez at the end of the season.

LIFELONG Spurs supporter TONY BERRY has either more money than sense or is a complete Tottenham fanatic.

He has just paid $800,000 to buy himself a seat on the board at White Hart Lane.

Berry, who worked as an apprentice from the Tottenham club by the then manager Bill Nicholson, boasts he has since made a fortune.

He is managing director of a London employment agency, and says: "If my dad was alive he would have been pleased how I had done in business."

"But he would have been over the moon that I am to sit on the Spurs board as a director."

UNITED MOVE FOR DIXON

MANCHESTER UNITED have made the first move toward changing the look at Old Trafford with a bid to England international KERRY DIXON, who is currently transfer-listed at Chelsea.

There has also been talk of MARK HUGHES returning to United after a £1.5 million fee has been agreed about.

As yet, though, it's not certain that the Welsh international will be released early from his contract with Haverhill in Spain where Dixon is definitely up for grabs.

United boss ALEX FERGUSON was impressed with Dixon during his side's 1-1 draw at Stamford Bridge and has plenty of options should Chelsea favour a $2 million exchange deal.

KERRY DIXON, moves from Red Devils.

"Three-quarters of our game is right but we have not got a killer finish," says Ferguson.

"That has cost us a lot of points in recent weeks. We would be in the top six now if we had turned all our pressure into goals."

But one man who will not feature in any exchange deal is Danish winger JESPER OLSEN, who has just been offered a new three-year contract.

Another striker United are looking closely at is Liverpool's out-of-favour PAUL WALSH.

THERE are changes afoot happening in the Bundesliga.

Esko Lahtela is going from Bayern Munich at the end of the season to FC Cologne.

The chairman will replace him with Jupp Heynckes from Borussia Mönchengladbach.

They in turn have appointed Wolf Wagner as their boss.

Hamburg are to appoint Joop Scharler from Hajduk Split as their manager as successor to Ernst Happel.

U.K. SOCCER SCENE

PETER'S PROBLEM

ENGLAND International PETER BEARDSLEY has been put under increasing pressure by Newcastle United fans, who are unhappy as to why he can't reproduce the form he displays for his country with the Geordie club.

His team-mates also wonder why he cannot bring about this match-winning form for his nation's threatened star.

The main reason, it would seem, is that he is playing in a deepening midfield role that has restricted him severely this season and has led to only five goals this year in the black and white strip.

Meanwhile, WILLIE McPAILL, has never said Beardsley is withdrawing from the front line.

Peter feels he is forced to drop back into midfield because he is not getting the ball.

Instead of mourning about their star striker, the Geordies should take a close look at the reasons why he isn't getting the proper service.

Peter is at his best running at defenders in and around the box.

The sooner he is allowed to establish the same understanding with Paul Goddard that he enjoys in the England side with Gary Lineker the better for his club.

ROBSON URGES HUGHES TO GO BACK HOME

MARK HUGHES' former Manchester United team-mate BRYAN ROBSON has advised him to hop on the next plane and head back to England and Old Trafford for good.

Says Robson, "There is nothing worse than being miserable and a footballer's career is too short for Mark to allow himself to suffer too long."

"Certainly, he should ignore all the bad press headlines carried by the Spanish newspapers over reports of his uncertain future at Barcelona."

"I haven't got a clue what Mark intends to do, or even if he is that unhappy at the Nou Camp, but I was delighted to learn that Manchester United's manager Alex Ferguson, who is quietly steering us back to the top, has not ruled out a possible return to Old Trafford for the Welshman who cracked 55 goals for us last year."

"Mark has a special relationship with the United fans. They loved him when he was hitting goals in our 30-game run of wins at the start of last season."

"Some will say 'Mark made his own bed, he should lie on it' but the great majority would welcome him back to Old Trafford if he chose to return," he concluded.

ELLIOT WANTS TO PARTNER ADAMS

PAUL ELLIOT has his heart set on partnering Arsenal's TONY ADAMS in the centre of the England defence.

Adam Villa's troubled central defender believes he can displace the established core of the England defence, the likes of Terry Butcher, Mark Wright and Alain Morris.

But Elliot knows he needs regular first team football in the First Division to achieve his ambition. That's why he is at Liverpool with Villa.

"I am on the transfer list," he says, "but the stupid thing is, I don't want to leave Villa Park."

"Meanwhile, Billy McNeill knows how I feel. I believe I am good enough for a regular place in the side and my recent form ought to bear that out."

Villa, unimpressed in scrapping it out for survival for the remaining weeks, have benefited from the return of the husky Elliot, whose competence on the ball and ability to pop in goals at the other end make him very popular with the fans.

It is a worrying time for the former England Under-21 international who recently turned 23.

Formerly with Charlton and Luton Town, he came to Villa Park to play for Graham Foster, with Steve Foster making the move in the opposite direction.

A worthy start behind him, Elliot became a key member of the side. However, injuries plus the sacking of Foster and the arrival of Michael Owen from Manchester City meant back to square one for Elliot.

"I have ambitions like the next guy. I feel I am good enough to play for England, but I must be able to string together a run of performances to prove that."

"Playing in a reserve side would help, but I'm not bothered about that. The fans here know why I have gone on the list. They also know it is in the context of Mr McNeill to get me off it. If he wants me here he only has to say so and let me get on with my career."

FLYING WEST

SPEED machine COLIN WEST, Chelsea's newest goalscoring sensation, has a stern and clear message for fans of the Stamford Bridge club: "I'm not the new David Speedie."

Five senior West's blistering debut against Arsenal had fans remarking on the similarity between the diminutive teenager and the man whose place he had taken.

But West insists: "We just look alike, that's all. We are small and quick but I haven't had any game on David's. And besides, I don't get booked."

West's very first match in football's fairytale of the season. Only four days before scoring the winner against Arsenal in his First Division debut, West had been playing for Park View in front of just 2,000 fans.

He'd been on loan at Thelwell for six months, and turned up for training on the Thursday to be told he was to get back to London as quickly as possible.

Eight Blues players had gone down injured, including strikers Speedie, Kerry Dixon and Gordon Dune, and manager John Hollins

MARK HUGHES

GARY GRABS HIS CHANCE

GARRY GILLESPIE disrupted one of the best partnerships in the First Division to make the breakthrough at Liverpool.

But manager Kenny Dalglish saw the strapping central defender as an integral part of the make-up at Anfield and the position in the championship side was grabbed with open arms by Gillespie.

The disruption by the former Coventry City man helped Liverpool greatly in reaching the Littlewoods (League) Cup Final against Arsenal which they lost 2-1.

After the Wembley occasion the Scot said: "This is my fourth season at Anfield and it has only been recently that I have got in the side to play regularly."

"I had to wait almost three years for a good run in the first team and that was because ALAN HANSEN and MARK LAWRENSEN were having my way."

"They had a terrific partnership and manager JOE FAGAN didn't fancy trying me in there."

"That's why I owe Kenny Dalglish a great deal because many people rated Alan and Mark the best central defensive partnership in the League."

"It took a lot of courage for Kenny to give me my big chance."

Lawrenson has moved to Luton to take the place of the injured Jim Magilton since Gary came in, but Gillespie admits: "I felt under enormous pressure when I first got in the side. But that has gradually eased as my confidence has grown."

ALEC FINALLY MAKES BREAK

BY TONY RALLIS

FIVE seasons ago ALEC CHAMBERLAIN was given a free transfer by Ipswich Town.

At that time he thought of giving away football and concentrating on his father's farming business — that is until an Ipswich team-mate ALLAN HUN. That came along and gave the 22-year-old a second chance at Colchester United.

Chamberlain has now made 20 consecutive appearances for the Essex club. But he might not stay around to challenge his manager's record of 365 matches on the team.

In fact Walker played more than 300 times for the club and it was Chamberlain who took over from him.

The young keeper has been under scrutiny from some of the leading clubs and admits he would have to seriously consider moving on if the right offer came.

"I love Colchester but I'm ambitious to play at the highest level."
